CATCH OF THE WEEK

Dan Morey, of Harbor Creek Township, caught and released a 40-inch northern pike April 29 while wading in Presque Isle Bay. It's the largest fish he's caught from the bay during his frequent wading outings.

AY'S QUESTION

Miami Heat win NBA title, would that mean that LeBron James made the right decision to leave the Cleveland Cavaliers?

It doesn't matter, he'd be right

PONTE VEDRA BEACH, Fla. — Coming off his worst performance in nearly a year, Nick Watney looked better than ever Thursday in The Players Championship with an 8-under 64 that put him atop the leaderboard.

Coming off what he described as a "minor injury," Tiger Woods looked to be in big trouble.

Nine holes into his first tournament since the Masters, the former No. 1 player in the world said he couldn't go on. Woods withdrew after his highest nine-hole score at this event — a 42 — and had no idea when he might return.

"I'm having a hard time walking," Woods said. Watney opened with three straight birdies didn't on for a player who's been hurt in recent seasons with injuries. He felt like a kid again. "I never smile a lot, but I'm smiling," Beltran said. "It's going to be a day I'll never forget." The switch-hitting outfielder became the eighth Mets player to hit three in a game, and he beat Jose Reyes on Aug. 15, 2009, in Philadelphia. And the Mets needed all the offense, too, especially with outfielder Ike Davis going on the disabled list because of a strained left ankle and back, and with third baseman David Wright sitting out to rest his neck and back.
